

This is a digital copy of a book that was preserved for generations on library shelves before it was carefully scanned by Google as part of a project to make the world's books discoverable online.

It has survived long enough for the copyright to expire and the book to enter the public domain. A public domain book is one that was never subject to copyright or whose legal copyright term has expired. Whether a book is in the public domain may vary country to country. Public domain books are our gateways to the past, representing a wealth of history, culture and knowledge that's often difficult to discover.

Marks, notations and other marginalia present in the original volume will appear in this file - a reminder of this book's long journey from the publisher to a library and finally to you.

Honble Gentlemen of the Senate, Mr. Speaker and Gentlemen of the House of Representatives,

Since the last meeting of a General Assembly, the good People of this State have not only felt the Common Calamities of War, but from the Wanton and Savage manner in which it has been prosecuted they have experienced such severities as are unpractised and will Scarcely be Credited by Civilized Nations,—

The Enemy unable to make any impression on the Northern States, the number of whose Inhabitants and the strength of whose Country had Baffled their repeated Efforts, turned their Views towards the Southern, which a difference of Circumstances afforded some expectation of conquering, or at least, of greatly distressing—after a long resistance, the Reduction of Charles Town was effected, by the Vast superiority of Force with which it had been besieged,

The loss of that Garrison as it consisted of the Continental Troops of Virginia and the Carolina's and of a number of Militia, Facilitated the Enemy's march into the country and their Establishment of strong post in the upper and interior parts of it,— And the unfavourable issue of the Action near Camden Induced them Vainly to imagine that no other Army could be collected, which they might not easily defeat.

The Militia commanded by the Brigadiers Sumpter and Marion, whose enterprising spirit and unremitted perseverance under many difficulties, are deserving of Great applause, harrassed and often defeated large parties, but the number of those Militia were too few to contend effectually with the collected strength of the Enemy— Regardless therefore of the sacred ties of Honour, destitute of the Feelings of Humanity, and determined to extinguish if possible, every spark of freedom in this Country, They with the insolent Pride of Conquerors, gave unbounded scope to the Exercise of their Tyrannical dispositions, infringed their publick Engagements and Violated the most solemn Capitulations,— Many of our Worthiest Citizens were without cause, long and closely confin'd—some on board of prison Ships, and others in Town and Castle of Saint Augustine, their properties disposed of, at the will and Caprice of the Enemy and their Families sent to a different and distant part of the Continent without the means of support— Many who had surrendered as prisoners of War, were kill'd in Cold Blood, several suffered Death in the most ignominious manner, and others were delivered up to Savages and put to Tortures under which they expired— Thus the lives, Liberties and properties of the people were dependent solely on the pleasure of British Officers who deprived them of either or all, on the most frivolous pretences,—Indians, Slaves, and desperate Banditti of the most profligate characters, were caressed and employed, by the Enemy to execute their infamous purposes— Devastation and Ruin marked their progress and that of their adherents, nor were their violences restrain'd by the charms or influence of Beauty and Innocence, Even the fair Sex, whom it is the duty of all, and the pleasure and pride of the Brave to protect,—they and their tender offspring, were Victims to the inveterate Malice of an unrelenting Foe,— Neither the Tears of Mothers, nor the Cries of Infants could excite in their Breasts, pity or Compassion, not only the peaceful Habitations of the Widow, the aged and infirm, but the Holy Temples of the most high, were consumed in flames kindled by their Sacrilegious hands; They have tarnished the Glory of the British Arms,—Disgraced the profession of a British soldier, and fixed indelible stigmas of rapine Cruelty, Perfidy and profaneness on the British name,— But I can now Congratulate you, and I do so most Cordially, on the pleasing change of affairs, which under the blessing of God, the Wisdom, Prudence, Address and Bravery of the Great and Gallant General Greene, and the intrepidity of the Officers and Men under his Command, have happily effected.— A General who is Justly intitled, from his many signal Services, to Honourable and Singular marks of your approbation and Gratitude.— His successes have been more rapid and compleat than the most sanguine could have expected, The enemy Compelled to Surrender or evacuate every post which they held in the Country, frequently defeated and driven from place to place, are obliged to seek refuge under the walls of Charles Town and on Islands in its Vicinity,—We have now the full and absolute possession of every other part of the State and the Legislative,—executive, and Judicial powers are in the free exercise of their respective Authorities,—I also most heartily Congratulate you on the Glorious Victory obtained by the combined Forces of America and France over their Common Enemy,—When the very General who was second in Command at the Reduction of Charles Town and to whose boasted prowess and highly extolled abilities, the Conquest of no less than three States had been Arrogantly committed, was speedily compelled to accept of the same Mortifying terms which had been imposed on that brave, but unfortunate Garrison, to surrender an Army of many Thousand Regulars and to abandon his Wretched followers, whom he had Artfully seduced from their Allegiance, by Specious promises of protection, which he cou'd never have hoped to fulfill, to the Justice or Mercy of their Country,—

On the Naval Superiority established by the illustrious ally of the United States,—A Superiority in itself so decided, and its consequences so extensive as must Inevitably soon oblige the Enemy to Yield to us the only post which they occupy in this State,—On the reiterated proofs of the sincerest Friendship, and on the great support which America has received from that powerful Monarch, A monarch whose magnanimity is universally Acknowledged and admired, And on whose Royal word we may confidently rely for every necessary assistance,—On the perfect harmony which subsists between France and America,—On the Stability which her Independence has acquired, and on the Certainty that it is too deeply rooted ever to be shaken,—for animated as they are by National Honour & United by one Common Interest, it must and will be maintained,—

What may be the immediate Effects on the British Nation of the events which I have mentioned, of their loss of Territory in other parts of the world and of, their well founded apprehensions from the powers of France, Spain and Holland, it is impossible to foretell,—If Experience can teach wisdom to a haughty and infatuated People & if they now will be Govern'd by reason, they will have learnt that they can have no Solid Ground of hope to Conquer any State in the Union, for, tho' their Armies have obtained Temporary advantages over our Troops, Yet the Citizens of these states, firmly resolved, as they are, never to return to a Domination which near six years ago, they unanimously and Justly renounced, cannot be subdued, and they must now be convinced that it is the Height of

Folly and Madness to persist in so ruinous a War,— If However, we Judge, as we ought, of their future, by their past conduct, We may presume that they will not only endeavour to keep possession of our Capital, but make another attempt, howsoever improbable the Success of it may appear to subjugate this Country,— It is therefore highly incumbent on us to use our most Strenuous Efforts, to frustrate so fatal a design, And I earnestly conjure you, by the duty which you owe, and the Sacred Love which you bear, to your Country, by the constant remembrance of her bitter sufferings, and by the just detestation of British Government, which you & your posterity must ever possess, to exert your utmost Faculties For that purpose, by raising and equipping, with all possible expedition, a respectable, permanent Force, and by making ample provision for their Comfortable subsistence,— I am sensible the expence will be great, but a measure so indispensable to the preservation of our Freedom, is above every pecuniary Consideration,— The Organization of our Militia is likewise a Subject of infinite Importance,— A Clear and Concise Law, by which the burdens of service will be equally sustained, and a Competent Number of Men brought forth and kept in the field when their Assistance may be required, is Essential to our Security, and therefore justly claims your Immediate and Serious Attention,—

Certain it is that some of our Militia have upon several Occasions, exhibited Instances of Valour, which wou'd have reflected Honour on Veteran Troops,— The Courage and Conduct of the Generals whom I have mentioned, the Cool and determin'd Bravery repeatedly displayed by Brigadier Pickens, and indeed the behaviour of the many Officers and Men, in every Brigade, are unquestionable Testimonies of the Truth of this Assertion,— But such behaviour cannot be expected from Militia in General, without good Order and Strict discipline, nor can that order and discipline be established, but by a Salutary Law, Steadily executed.—

Another important matter for your deliberation, is the conduct of such of our Citizens as Voluntarily avowing their allegiance, and even glorying in their professions of Loyalty and attachment to his Britannick Majesty, have offered their Congratulations on the Success of his Arms, prayed to be embodied as Royal Militia accepted Commissions in his Service, or endeavoured to Subvert our Constitution, & re-establish his power in its' stead, —Of those who have return'd to this State in defiance of a Law, by which such Return was declared to be a Capital Offence, and have abetted the British Interest, and of such whose behaviour has been so reprehensible that Justice and Policy forbid their free readmission to the rights and Privileges of Citizens,—— The Extraordinary Lenity of this State has been remarkably conspicuous,— other States have thought it just and expedient to appropriate the property of British Subjects to the publick use: But we have forbore to take even the Profits of the Estates Of our most implacable Enemies, it is with you to determine, whether the forfeiture and appropriation of their Property should now take place,— If such should be your determination, tho' many of our firmest Friends have been reduced, for their inflexible Attachment to the Cause of their Country, from Opulence to inconceivable Distress, and if the Enemy's Will and power had prevailed, would have been doomed to Indigence and Beggary, Yet, it will redound to the reputation of this State, to provide a becoming support, for the families of those whom you may deprive of their Property,——

The Value of Paper Currency, became of late so much depreciated, that it was requisite, under the Powers Vested in the Executive, during the recess of the General Assembly, to suspend the Laws, by which it was made a Tender;—— You will now Consider whether it may not be proper to repeal those Laws, and fix some equitable mode for the discharge of debts Contracted whilst paper Money was in Circulation,——

In the present Scarcity of Specie, it would be difficult if not impracticable to levy a Tax to any Considerable amount, towards sinking the Publick Debt, nor will the Creditors of the State expect that such a Tax Shou'd at this time be imposed; but, it is just and reasonable that all unsettled demands should be liquidated, And satisfactory assurances of payment given to the publick Creditors——

The Interest and Honour, the safety and Happiness of our Country depend so much on the Result of your Deliberations, That I flatter myself you will proceed in the Weighty Business before you with firmness and Temper, with Vigour, Unanimity and Dispatch,——

J: Rutledge—
January 18th, 1782—

Ordered,—

We the House of Representatives of the State of South Carolina, in General Assembly met, return your Excellency our most cordial thanks for your very interesting speech to both Houses at the opening of this Session, the Language of which evidently bespeaks a Heart glowing with ardent Zeal for the Interest and welfare of our Common Country,

We want words to express our heart felt exultation on the pleasing reverse in our affairs; on this spot, but a few Months past, A Military despotism prevailed, and tyranny with lawless violence was Desolating our fair possessions, but we now with extacy behold a free Government reestablished. Liberty that greatest of Temporal Blessings restored, and every Citizen Secured in the possession of his property by the firm barrier of the Law of his Country, This Auspicious change is in a very great degree owing to the prudence, firmness and good conduct of your Excellency,—

If any thing can add to the sublime and refined enjoyment which must arise from your Excellency's own reflections on your presevering Unabated, and Sucessfull exertions towards rescuing your Country from the Iron hand of Oppression, be pleased Sir, to accept the most sincere and unfeigned thanks of your grateful fellow Citizens.—

The Black Catalogue which your Excellency has given of British Barbarities, form but a small part of the whole: when ever the Historic Page shall be stained with their Story, it will exhibit a Nation devoid of faith, with whom Oaths, Treaties and the most Solemn compacts were considered as trifles; who without Scruple or remorse had abandoned all regard to humanity, honour, justice and every ennobling sentiment of the human breast. It is hardly possible to conceive any circumstances that would aggravate the atrocious Wickedness of their Conduct, there is not left a Step in the degradation of National Character to which they can now descend, The name of a Briton must hence forward be a Term of reproach among all Nations,—

We shou'd betray a great degree of insensibility and be wanting in Justice to his merit shou'd we omit this occasion of acknowledging with the Warmest gratitude our Obligations to the Great the Gallant General Greene, His achievements in this State while they rank him with the greatest Commanders of Antient or Modern date, will engrave his Name in indelible Characters on the Heart of every Friend to this Country, Our acknowledgments are also due to all the Brave Officers and Men under his Command who have so Often fought, bled and Conquered for us.—

The Generals, Sumpter, Marion and Pickens with the Brave Militia under their Commands,—Those Virtuous Citizens who did not despair of the Common Wealth in her greatest extremity, are deserving of the highest commendation,—

The friendly, seasonable and effectual aid recently afforded us by our great and Illustrious ally, by means of which the General, on whom the British nation seem'd most to have placed their dependence has been compelled to surrender the flower of the British Army, to our immortal Commander in Chief, must greatly encrease the flame of Gratitude, which had been before kindled in the breast of every American, and which it will not be in the Power of time or accident to extinguish,—

We perfectly concur in Sentiments with your Excellency that from our connection with this powerful and wise Monarch we may expect with well grounded confidence, that our Independence will be shortly established upon an immoveable basis, nor need we harbour a single fear of its dissolution, an Union which Originated from such liberal and generous motives and which is founded on mutual interest, that best Cement of Nations, must and will Continue.

Whether the Series of Losses, Disasters and Defeats of the Year past will at length recover Britain from her Delirium Time only can disclose, but as Misfortune hitherto instead of producing reflection and prudence, has operated to encrease her insanity, We agree in Opinion with your Excellency that it is probable she will not only endeavour to keep possession of our Capital but make another attempt to subjugate the Country, We shall therefore immediately enter upon the prosecution of the measures recommended by your Excellency as necessary for its safety, And being fully sensible how much depends upon the result of our deliberations, we will endeavour to proceed in the weighty business with firmness and Temper, with Vigour, Unanimity and Dispatch,—

Ordered, That it be fairly engross'd and that Mr. Speaker do sign the Same,—

A Message from the Senate by their Clerk, returning the Bill entitled an Act, for repealing the Laws which make Paper Currency or Bills of Credit a Legal Tender, which had been read a third time in that House and passed,—

John Mathews—

Febry 12, 1782

The above Message was accompanied with the following Letter from Major General Greene— viz<sup>t</sup>

Head Quarters Febry 11. 1782—

Sir,/

In answer to your Excellency's Letter upon the proposition of furnishing the army with a number of negroes, provided their Service may be accounted for by Congress, I beg leave to observe, if they can be had on such terms as will engage their fidelity.— The publick cou'd employ four or five Hundred to great advantage; but unless the Negroes have an Interest in their servitude I am persuaded they will be of little weight, and by no means to be depended upon, I woud beg leave to propose therefore that the publick Cloath them, and that the negroes be allowed the same wages allowed by Congress to the Soldiers of the Continental army; if this is agreed to, the fidelity of the negroes may be depended on, and they may perhaps perform the service expected from them with cheerfulness, I think we cou'd employ one hundred and forty waggoners, one Hundred and fifty pioneers, one hundred and twenty artificers, and Twenty or Thirty Servants, to advantage, if this number could be immediately furnished the army, such as are good men and such as shall be approv'd of on inspection, I will recommend this matter fully to Congress for their approbation, that the state may be allowed for the same in the publick accounts,— I have the Honour to be with great Respect,

By Order of the Senate

John Lewis Gervais prest.

Mr. Owen from the Committee order’d to receive an additional List of names of Persons whose Estates are proper subjects of Confiscation &c<sup>a</sup>. inform’d the House, that they had receiv’d a List of sundry names if the House wou’d please to receive it,— he accordingly read the List in his place, and delivered it in at the clerks table

Mr. Kean from the committee on the Petition of the Field and other officers of the Upper and Lower Granville and Colleton County Regiments, inform’d the House that they were ready to report if they wou’d be pleas’d to receive it,— He accordingly read the report in his place, and delivered it in at the Clerks Table, when it was again read and is as follows viz<sup>t</sup>.—

That in their opinion the Governor and Council under the Extraordinary powers vested in them by the late Legislature had an undoubted right to use their Judgment in the appointment of Militia officers, but as the Petition referred to your Committee contains the names of a great number of Persons, and as the complaints of the People should at all times be paid the greatest attention to, they are of Opinion that the respective ranks complain’d against, should be either confirmed or Determined by an Election of both Houses,— And that this House may be well inform’d and have sufficient matter whereon to determine, Your Committee desire their Consideration of the following facts viz<sup>t</sup>.— That Col<sup>o</sup>. Harden, after the Surrender of Charles Town (finding it impracticable to escape) did submit to the British and became one of their Subjects, some time in July 1780.— That General Barnwell then bearing the Commission of Major, was made a prisoner in Charles Town, and remained such untill exchanged by the General Cartel in June last,— That he took the command and fought the Enemy on the 3<sup>d</sup>. January 1781— after which his Men dispersing he was obliged to seek safety in flight, and got as far as the Congaree River, where loosing his Horses, the Water being high, and hearing that Gen<sup>l</sup>. Marion was defeated and retired to Salisbury in North Carolina, he returned to the swamp near the Horse shoe,—

That having heard many reports of the severity of the Enemies intentions against him, and judging it the best mode to elude their search and make his escape, he did write into the commanding officer of the British for a Pardon, which pardon he did receive, but did not surrender himself personally but did keep the Pardon untill he crossed the santee some time the latter end of February and joined General Sumter who gave him a Col<sup>o</sup>. Command, since which he has acquitted himself of every matter committed to his charge with fidelity becoming an officer,—

That during General Barnwells Captivity, the Lieutenant Colonel and Colonel of the Regiment to which he belonged did become British subjects, the Colonel Petitioned the first of February 1781 his Petitiond was granted and a Certificate of which he received on the thirteenth of same Month,—

That it appears that General Barnwell has in every matter committed to his charge acquitted himself with fidelity and becoming an officer,—

Upon the whole your committee are of opinion that the Commission of a Col<sup>o</sup>. which General Pickens conferr'd on Col<sup>o</sup> Harden bearing date the first of January 1781 is good and Valid; and they must therefore Consider Col<sup>o</sup> Harden as the Elder officer at the time of General Barnwells appointment as Brigadier as stated in the Petition, and that the postponing of Colonel Hardin has excited a good deal of Murmur and discontent among the officers and privates of the Militia.

Ordered that the consideration of the above Report be postponed.—

The House proceeded to the Third reading of the Bill for disposing of Certain Estates &c<sup>a</sup>. agreeable to the order of the day;

On reading the Bill several amendments were made therein & clauses added thereto, which on the Question being put thereon

A Motion was made and seconded that the further reading of the Bill be postponed,— in the same, and believe them to be true, they are satisfied that your Petitioner is sincerely attached to the liberties of America, and they farther believe that this attachment is not lately taken up from Ideas of present convenience and interest, but founded on principle as they are informed by the Honble John Lloy'd and others,—That your Petitioner when a Youth at School in Europe, has often been heard to express his most hearty Approbation of American Measures, and his most Cordial wishes to be in a situation to Co-Operate with his Country men in the defence of their injured rights,— Your Committee are of Opinion, that no lasting inconvenience can arise to the Publick, from deferring the sale of the estate of Doct<sup>r</sup> Garden, as the property is by the Confiscation act, Transferred to the Publick, and at their disposal,—On the other hand, should a sale take place, and the Father of your Petitioner quit the Country with his moveable property,— Your Petitioner who is now daily exposing his life in your defence, would in that case, be reduced to great difficulties, and as the sale is to be on long Credit, it would be inconvenient for the Legislature to make him any Suitable restitution for his immediate support,— Your Committee therefore Unanimously recommend that the prayer of the Petition be granted.—

Ordered that the Consideration of the foregoing report be postponed,

Mr. Read from the committee appointed to bring in a Bill for amercing certain persons therein mentioned informed the House, that the committee had prepared a Bill for that purpose, if the House would be pleased to receive it, He accordingly read the Title of the Bill and delivered it in at the clerks Table, where it was read the first time.

against the Publick, and that they remain twenty days in each District in order to receive and Liquidate demands,— That they forthwith give publick notice (by printed hand Bills which they shall cause to be circulated throughout the State) of the times and places, when and where they will meet for that purpose in order that all persons whom it concerns, may be sufficiently apprized of such meetings and be prepared to attend them and support their Claims by proper proofs or Vouchers,— That the said Commissioners or a Majority of them also Liquidate and prepare a State of the publick debt, for money borrowed and Interest thereon,— That they also prepare an account of the demand of this State against the United States, and that this Estimate and acco<sup>t</sup>. be Liquidated in specie according to the Value of the Money borrowed or advanced, and the articles furnished at the respective times of borrowing or advancing the said Money or furnishing such supplies,—

And that the said Commissioners present their Estimate and acco<sup>t</sup>. to both branches of the Legislature at its next meeting, to the end, that this House, may devise Ways and Means for payment or secureing payment of the publick debt. And that the necessary steps be taken for obtaining a settlement with the Honble the Congress.—

Resolved that this House will make provision for payment of such Travelling charges, and other reasonable expences as the said Commissioners shall incur in the execution of the business above mentioned—

Ordered that the above Resolutions be sent to the Honble the Senate for their Concurrence, and that a Message be prepared, and that M<sup>r</sup>. Speaker do sign the same, the following Message was accordingly prepared viz<sup>t</sup>.

The above Message was accompanied with the following Letter. viz<sup>t</sup>.

Sir/

The 10th September last I received instructions from his Excellency the late Governor for raising a Regiment of Cavalry to consist of Four Troops. In consequence of which I have enlisted upwards of Eighty men for the War or three Years, have procured a Number of Horses, Saddles, and other accoutrements suitable for Cavalry, and have taken measures to procure cloathing sufficient to compleat the whole regiment, as it seem'd to be the opinion that prevail'd generally that Infantry were more immediately wanted than Cavalry, I laid a plan before the Legislature for reducing the Corps to two Troops of Cavalry, and two companies of Infantry, and for adding to their pay, a negroe at the expiration of their Time of Service; This however was not agreed to.

It is thought unnecessary to continue the Regiment on the present establishment, and that the men already enlisted are not wanted, I cou'd wish your Excellency would be pleased to give orders for discharging them and make provision to defray such expence as has unavoidably been incurr'd./ I am Sr. Your Ex-
